From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 8/A
Amsterdam, July 8. The Advices from Inspruck confirm, that the Baron de Heindl Governour of Ehrenberg has taken the Town of Schongau on Articles of Capitulation; The Bavarian Garrison march'd out with their Arms, but 250 Men of the Militia of the Country were conducted to Reita near Ehrenberg. There was found in Schongau a great Quantity of Corn and Hay, Baron Heindl has likewise taken Weilheim. He advanc'd with 240 Horse to Sternberg, which lyes within two Leagues of Munich; but being inform'd that a considerable Detachment of Horse were come out of Munich to attack him, he return'd to Schongau.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated July 10.
Basil, June 28. The Catholick Cantons have had a Meeting at Lucerne according to their usual Custom, to prepare Matters against the General Diet which is to be open'd at Baden the 6th of next Month. The Marquess of Berretti Landi had a publick Audience of them at Lucerne, in Quality of Ambassador of Spain; in which he told the said laudable Cantons, that they needed to fear nothing as long as they should continue in Alliance with the two Crowns.

Falmouth, July 10. This Morning arriv'd here the Jamacia-Gally, William Jury Commander, from Jamacia in 7 Weeks time, who in the Latitude of 36 d. and 40 m. met the homeward bound Fleet from Virginia; consisting of 140 Sail, under Convoy of the Dreadnought, Fowey, Falkland, and Oxford, the 2 latter having joyn'd the Fleet 3 days after they came out; this Ship parted from them the 16th of June 160 Leagues distant from the Capes, the Falkland and Oxford had taken in their passage two Rich Prizes from Martinico, which are coming home in the Fleet. The Captain Captain reports that they are now Re-building the Town of Port-Royal, and that all things were well on that Island. The Pacquet-boat was not arriv'd at Jamaica.

The Writer of this Courant, desires the Author of the Review of the Affairs of France to answer the following Question in his next Paper.

Suppose a Letter be sent to the Writer of the Courant, telling him a very Scandalous Story of the Author of the Review; What Name would he deserve should he take the Liberty to publish such a Letter without making any enquiry into the Fact? especially if the Story should prove false.

Whether he Answer this Question or not, we intend to tell the Publick the Reason of our asking it, in Monday's Courant.

For the Benefit of I. Smith.
